

Market Watch

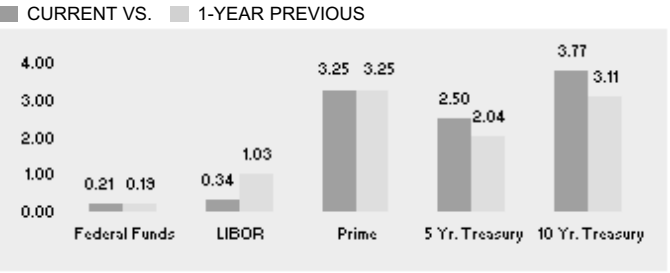

Stocks were down for the week ended Thursday. The Dow closed up flat and the S&P 500 and Nasdaq each fell nearly 1%. Stocks continued to fall early Friday on economic concerns. The week's best local performer was Newport Beach-based chipmaker Mindspeed Technologies Inc., up nearly 24% after reporting quarterly sales that exceeded expectations and matching what analysts expected in profits. Newport Beach chipmaker Conexant Systems Inc. was the week's worst local performer, down almost 19% after reporting profits short of expectations and offering a weak outlook for the current quarter. Epicor Software Corp., an Irvine maker of business software, sank nearly 13% on a disappointing outlook for the current quarter.
