Andy Guzinski

CMR Risk & Insurance Services is pleased to announce the promotion of Andy Guzinski to Principal and Vice President. Andy joined CMR in 2018, with over 17 years experience as a Broker. He graduated from the University of San Diego with a B.S. in Business Administration and holds an Associate in Risk Management (ARM). Andy leads CMR's Construction Practice Group, with a focus on helping mid to large sized construction firms design insurance placement and risk control strategies. We are confident Andy will continue to be a true value added service provider and demonstrate the same commitment in assisting with the overall growth and development of CMR and its team.

CONSTRUCTION

Office Opening

Skyline Construction Enterprises, Inc., has opened an office in San Diego, CA, a major step in the commercial real estate and construction holding company's nationwide expansion plan. With this location, the company will be able to service clients throughout Southern California including Orange County, the Inland Empire and San Diego, complementing their existing locations in Seattle, Chicago and the San Francisco Bay Area.

Rene Olivo

Skyline's Southern California expansion will be led by two seasoned industry veterans, Rene Olivo and Sean Holliday. Under their leadership, Skyline will provide construction services in the areas of commercial interiors and capital improvements which includes ground-up office buildings, multi-family residential, hospitality, building repositioning, mission critical and life science projects.

Olivo, a San Diego native, joined the Skyline family of companies last year after a long career leading Rudolph & Sletten's Southern California region. He currently oversees the company's commercial interiors division throughout California, with a desire to grow into the life science market.

Sean Holliday

Holliday is a former executive of Balfour Beatty, and joined Skyline in 2016 before successfully launching Skyline Capital Builders in 2019, growing the firm's ground-up division into a thriving business.

The two have established an office in Sorrento Valley and have hired a growing workforce to begin servicing existing clients in the region. Their key hires include a Project Executive, a Director of Preconstruction and a team of 10 local professionals to run the firm's day to day construction operations. This team brings over 20 years of Southern California construction experience in the areas of ground up commercial office, retail, hospitality and multi-family residential construction.
