BASTYR UNIVERSITY

HIGHER EDUCATION

New Hire

Devin A. Byrd

Bastyr University, a private natural health arts and sciences university, is excited to announce Devin A. Byrd, Ph.D. as its new president. As Bastyr's first African American president in its 43-year history, Dr. Byrd will bring two decades of leadership experience in higher education. He holds a Ph.D. and a Master of Science in Psychology from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University. "It is a privilege and an honor to have been selected to lead an institution that is an innovator in the field of natural health," said Dr. Byrd. "Having an opportunity to become part of a rich and science-based environment at such a pivotal time in academia is very exciting." Over the course of several months, the Bastyr University Board of Trustees completed a nationwide executive search and interviewed an extensive list of candidates for the position. The goal was to find a candidate with strong experience in academia, strategy and diversity. "We are confident that Dr. Byrd will propel our organization forward in new ways as we continue to excel and grow in our near post-pandemic world," said Carol Taylor, Chair of the Bastyr University Board of Trustees. In his new role, Dr. Byrd will work with both internal and external partners to further promote an integrative approach to health care. This will include upgrading research and clinical services to serve not only Seattle and San Diego communities but regional and national ones as well.
