LAURA BARRY & JIM GRAVES

Barry Estates

aura Barry & Jim Graves have been at the forefront of the value surge in Real Estate in San Diego: Rancho Santa Fe, Del Mar and Beach Communities from Carlsbad to La Jolla. Just this week they sold the most expensive home in La Jolla at $21,750,000 YTD and earlier this year they broke a price history record in Carlsbad with a closed sale at $20,000,000. In fact, for year 2020 and YTD 2021 Laura Barry & Jim Graves have sold more properties over $10M and above than any other agent or agent team. Their impressive performance defy the competition and they have raving fans for clients who make up a list of who's who. Their knowledge of the communities they serve and vast insight give them the ability to get clients into properties not available publicly. What's their secret - Hard Work! Laura Barry was the first residential real estate agent to sell over $300M in San Diego in a calendar year, and has done that ever since. Laura & Jim and are set out to sell over $400M in San Diego in 2021. In any market - whether a good or down market, Laura & Jim have broken price records. DELORINE JACKSON
Compass

elorine's story is rooted in the unlikely path that brought her to Southern California. From humble beginnings as an orphan in South Korea, Delorine and her sister arrived in LAX on Thanksgiving Day to meet their new parents and begin their new life in Southern California. This arrival in America at the young age of 8 sparked in her a desire to succeed in her newfound country and make the best of any opportunity. As an adult, Delorine and her husband, Bob Jackson, have raised their kids and established community roots in The Bridges of Rancho Santa Fe. When I think of how to describe Delorine Immediately think of kind and empathetic leader. She may have the biggest heart of any top producer I have ever worked with. I've heard many a story shared with me by colleagues in the industry of how upon learning of a person (not just clients) in need of help, she is there for them in any capacity. All of this coming from a person who is one of the top agents in all of San Diego.Delorine is also an active entrepreneur with thriving business ventures: Rancho Santa Fe Food Company, Nature's Fusion Glow and Delorine J Collection. ALAN KINZEL Douglas Elliman lan Kinzel's dad was a weekend farmer from whom he learned a lot about life. When a neighbor had a problem in this small community, everyone dropped what they were doing to help them get back on their feet. That is how he grew up thinking the world should be. He applies this passion that burned in him to unselfishly help people with unique real estate needs and doing more than what is expected. The top quality that helps Alan be successful in the hyper-competitive real estate market is his uniquely diverse and deep experience base. Alan has degrees in Economics and Finance from the University of Missouri and an MBA from the University of Illinois which he uses to analyze data and market conditions for his clients. Alan owned a major national mortgage company and has a clear understanding for mortgage lending to share with his clients and vet offers that come on his listings. He also has been an investor who has renovated and sold approximately 50 homes. He understands what it takes to make a home most appealing to get the most money with the least amount of renovation. He owned a construction company, due to which he shares his expertise, database and rough cost estimates with clients as they look at opportunities. DRE#01925565.
