Apollo 11 Exhibit Lands at the Nixon Library

In celebration of the 50th anniversary year of the historic Apollo 11 moon landing, the Richard Nixon Presidential Library and Museum has opened an all-new interactive special exhibit, Apollo 11: One Giant Leap for Mankind.

The exhibit is open now and runs through January 12, 2020.

On July 20, 1969, the eyes of the world watched as Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin became the first men to walk on the moon. Just minutes after landing they received a surprise phone call from President Richard Nixon in the Oval Office, with congratulations on behalf of the American people. Days later, President Nixon personally greeted the three astronauts at the splashdown site in the Pacific Ocean, aboard the U.S.S. Hornet.

Guests to this out-of-this-world exhibit will take a thrill ride through the Space Race of the 1950s and 1960s, President Kennedy's famous challenge to go to the moon, and explore the scientific and technological advancements that were developed—many in Southern California—to ensure success and survival on this inspirational mission.

The exhibit's originally-created, 360-degree virtual reality experience transports visitors to the lunar surface on July 20, 1969, to see and hear Neil Armstrong's "one giant leap for mankind."

Visitors can sit in a 1969 American living room and watch the moon landing just like people all over the world did on that historic night 50 years ago.

"It brought back a lot of great memories," said Apollo 11 astronaut Buzz Aldrin when he toured the special exhibit on the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Splashdown. Some of the tools Buzz used on the lunar surface are on display in the exhibit.

All subsequent lunar landings happened during the Nixon administration, and Richard Nixon remains the only president with his name on a plaque on the lunar surface.

The exhibit is presented by American Happenings, a philanthropic corporation dedicated to supporting charitable partners and civic awareness projects.

Exhibit partners include NASA, the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum, Boeing, the Arnold and Mabel Beckman Foundation and Immersive VR Education. Other contributing organizations include the Astronaut Scholarship Foundation, Discovery Cube, and the Columbia Memorial Space Center.

Apollo 11: One Giant Leap for Mankind is included with admission to the Nixon Library. The Nixon Library is open seven days a week, Mondays through Saturdays from 10 AM to 5 PM and Sundays from 11 AM to 5 PM.

Artifacts and Objects On Display:

- Buzz Aldrin's penlight used in the Lunar Module and Apollo 11 patch worn on the surface of the moon
- NASA X-15 silver-gleaming pressure suit used to train Neil Armstrong and America's first astronauts
- Moon rocks from the lunar surface
- Oval Office telephone that President Nixon used to call Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin as they explored on the lunar surface
- Presidential Medal of Freedom Award presented to astronaut Michael Collins by President Nixon
- President Nixon's draft speech prepared in the event of a "moon disaster"
- A 3-D printed, life-sized statue of Neil Armstrong in his spacesuit, as he climbed down the ladder of the Lunar Module on the moon
- A giant, exact recreation of an Apollo mission command module

Astronaut Buzz Aldrin toured the special exhibit with Nixon Foundation President Hugh Hewitt on the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Splashdown.

Holiday Entertaining Made Easy with Andrei's Conscious Cuisine & Cocktails

With the holiday season fast approaching, why not plan to make your corporate or private event extra special this year by teaming up with Andrei's? Over the past ten years, Andrei's dedicated Events & Catering Team has helped host thousands of unforgettable events both on-site and in homes, offices and other event facilities around Orange County. From small, intimate gatherings to large corporate receptions, Andrei's will work one-on-one with you to design the perfect event based on the occasion and your requirements.

For events at the restaurant, Andrei's offers several venue options including two private dining rooms: the Boardroom, which seats up to 30 people, and the main event venue, the Great Room, which can accommodate up to 300 cocktail guests. Enjoy a large private patio, stunning onyx bar, 120" projection screen for presentations, a podium and wireless microphone, as well as Andrei's signature cuisine and bar offerings. Andrei's can also host semi-private events in its second-story Tower Room and/or Citrus & Herb Terrace. For a truly spectacular private event, the entire restaurant may be rented on select dates.

Chef Porfirio Gomez sources only the finest seasonal ingredients from local farms and ranches to create dishes that delight the senses and provide a unique alternative to standard banquet fare. For larger events, more extravagant stations and buffets can be set up featuring gourmet sliders, kebabs or tender cuts of meat for carving. Prix-fixe menus can include everything from Grilled All-Natural Filet Mignon with Black Truffle Sauce to Red Miso-Glazed Pacific Lingcod. The bar and mixology stations subscribe to the same philosophy, using only fresh juices, fruits, herbs and liquors to develop a tantalizing array of specialty cocktails that are equally thoughtful and diverse.

Clients wishing to host cocktail parties with small bites can expect tray-passed delights such as Applewood Bacon-Wrapped Scallops, Lamb Lollipops or Chocolate Truffle Cake with Raspberry Mousseline. If you're looking to host something off-site, Andrei's or its fast-casual sister concept, Dandelion Café, can now come to you to create the perfect holiday event at your home or office.

Owner Natalia Ostensen opened Andrei's in 2009 as a tribute to her late brother

Andrei and his belief in eating natural, local and sustainable food while also supporting a relaxing, friendly and inspiring atmosphere for guests. In order to further these ideals, all of the restaurant's profits are donated to the Andrei Foundation (www.andreifoundation.com), which supports a number of local charities.

In addition to holiday events, Andrei's can serve as a venue for corporate meetings, social mixers, charity events, weddings, bar & bat mitzvahs, anniversary & birthday celebrations and tradeshows. For event consultation and reservations, please contact Jennifer Simmons at (949) 387-8750 or Jennifer@andreisrestaurant.com.

Andrei's is located at 2607 Main Street in Irvine at the corner of Jamboree and Main, with convenient access to the 405 and 5 Freeways.
