A Character-Driven Education: TVT is The Place To Be

TVT Community Day School is not only the #1 K-12 School in Orange County AND the #1 Jewish School in America, as ranked by Niche.com three years in a row, TVT is the place to be.

From Transitional Kindergarten through graduation, TVT provides a caring community and a one-of-a-kind experience to nurture students with academic, emotional, and character growth in preparation for college and beyond.

TVT's faculty are carefully selected as experts in their fields, and more than half hold advanced degrees. With the intimate settings of small class sizes, teachers form lasting relationships with students as they progress through the grades. Innovative dual curriculum with individualized and blended learning challenges students to think critically, to work collaboratively, and to explore creatively in state-of-the-art classrooms designed with the latest technology and curricula.

As remarkable as the academics are, the TVT experience goes far beyond academics. TVT is not only a school but a strong community. A community who knows each student's academic ability as well as fosters and invests in their character development. Immersion and service-learning projects allow students to engage in high-quality, hands-on experiences, preparing them to become inquisitive learners, compassionate citizens, and courageous leaders in their community and in the world.. Character is paramount and equally important are the values that are being taught, the sense of pride that is instilled and the community culture that is nurtured. Integrated into every aspect of the TVT experience are core values.

TVT provides a college preparatory education rooted in the Jewish values of caring for the community, justice, kindness, respect, truth, and repairing the world (tikkun olam), knowing that joyful learning today leads to meaningful achievements tomorrow. While the future may be uncertain, TVT believes that successful people in the 21st century will have excellent written and verbal communication skills, will be skilled in thinking analytically, both in science/mathematics and in humanities, and will be effective collaborators.

With its focus on the whole student, TVT really is the place to be...

Lower School

TVT's Lower School, which spans transitional kindergarten through fifth grade, incorporates innovative educational techniques - such as blended learning - into its safe and nurturing environment to create self-directed learners who are confident and inquisitive. The Lower School's dual curriculum and robust options for academic acceleration and student support ensure an individualized approach for each student within our care.

Middle School

TVT recognizes that middle school (grades 6-8) is a time of personal exploration when students begin to define their individualism and solidify their values and beliefs. TVT provides experiential curriculum to support developmental growth and provides faculty mentorship and guidance counseling to ensure that every student has the advantage of a strong safety net as they navigate adolescence.

Upper School

TVT's Upper School (Grades 9-12) allows students to refine their sense of self through rigorous academics taught by faculty committed to the school's values, to ethical action, and to tikkun olam (repairing the world). While TVT's college counseling department partners with students and parents to guide them toward best-fit colleges, unique programs such as Immersion Study and a capstone trip to Poland and Israel in the junior year encourage each student to wrestle with our robust curriculum and to develop the strong critical thinking skills and life experiences that have become necessary not just for top-tier college admissions, but for meaningful lives and fulfilling futures.

The only independent TK-12 Jewish community day school in Orange County and one of the largest in the nation, TVT was established in 1991 by Irving Gelman, a Holocaust survivor, in loving memory of Naomi Gelman Weiss. TVT is a tribute to the TARBUS schools that flourished in Eastern Europe before the Holocaust.

DECIDEDLY CHRISTIAN, DISTINCTIVELY EXCELLENT!

Greetings in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

It is a joy and an honor to welcome and introduce you to a special ministry in Irvine — Crean Lutheran High School. This year we commemorate God's faithfulness, amazing grace, and His many blessings afforded to our ministry as we celebrate our 15th academic year in Irvine. We wish to thank all stakeholders who have been a blessing on this journey. We would also like to invite you to come and see what the Lord is doing at Crean Lutheran High School.

Our Mission. While much has changed in the past 15 years as we continue to grow and add to our campus and community, one thing hasn't changed: our mission and commitment to "Proclaiming Jesus Christ Through Excellence in Education!"

In support of our mission, our schoolwide learning outcomes are centered around the Christian faith. These desired outcomes are: I am a Christian; I am a Learner; I am a Servant. In fulfillment of reaching each of these outcomes, Crean Lutheran High School seeks to teach and live by God's grace through a guiding Biblical worldview. It is through the nurturing lens of God's word, along with the Spirit, that our students' faith will grow and equip them to understand, view, engage, and love the world around them as they proclaim Jesus Christ.

Our Vision. By the grace of God, Crean Lutheran High School strives to continue to be a safe haven and a beacon that shines the light of Jesus Christ in a world of spiritual darkness.

Our Spirit-led faculty and staff continue to embrace and pursue excellence and are committed to providing loving care while educating our students. They love the Lord, love what they do (and excel at it), and love our students. Today's world is growing increasingly complex and advancing technologically at an incomprehensible pace. Our efforts in the classroom are future-oriented and responsive to the rapidly changing demands and needs of our students. We partner together as students, parents, school, church, and community in pursuit of the best educational practices in a Christ-centered environment, serving our Lord and proclaiming our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Our Passion. The love of God and Jesus Christ, the love of our students and their families, and the love of what we do in our daily service to the Lord compel those who serve at Crean Lutheran High School.

There are no "do-overs" in high school. The Crean Lutheran experience promotes an engaged student body, encouraging students to grow in the Christian faith, commit to lifelong learning, and embrace a life of service to others. Students are encouraged to have a robust four-year transformative experience; to be active participants in their experience: academics, activities, arts, and athletics,

Thank you for your consideration and time spent getting to know more about the Crean Lutheran High School community. We hope that you're compelled to become a member of our blessed Crean Lutheran Saints family.

Thank you, dear friends in the community of Irvine and surrounding areas, that have been such a blessing to our beloved ministry.

In Christ's love,

Jeffrey S. Beavers

Change for a Brighter Future

Daisy, the first of her family to graduate from high school, is pursuing her college degree. When she first participated in the High School Inc.'s Academy at Santa Ana Valley High School, thoughts of a career in the culinary industry were far in the distant future.

"My parents didn't go to school here, I feel lucky to have been in the Culinary Academy with Mrs. Heremans. She helped me secure my internship that inspired me to chase my dream career."

Daisy gained self-confidence and determination to succeed through her internship at Black Market Bakery. High School Inc. Academies' students, like Daisy, work with industry mentors and receive hands-on field experiences. These opportunities prepare students with the skills, confidence, and guidance to pursue a college and career path with clarity and focus. Daisy is now in her last semester at California State Fullerton, obtaining her bachelor degree in Business. She is on her way towards a dream of opening her own bakery.
